THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI
UNIVERSITY, MISSISSIPPI

January 24, 1957

Office of the Chancellor

Dr. and Mrs. John Moore
Box 382
University, Mississippi

Dear Doctor and Mrs. Moore:

The University is deeply grateful to you both for the work that you did in preparing for Governor Coleman's visit to the campus. He was impressed and pleased with the assistance that both of you gave him. The fact that you made a two-day trip to Memphis and brought back files of The Commercial Appeal for the period 1888-1890 and then marked the passages saved the Governor an immense amount of time. It is these acts over and beyond the call of duty that impress people with the spirit and quality of the University.

All of us at the University are deeply grateful to you for the fine way in which you met this opportunity.

Best wishes to you both.

Sincerely,

J. D. Williams
